Danny Green
- This subject is close to my heart due to the close connection my son had with the late Cameron Lowe, which later seen my own close connection with Cameron's brother Brandyn.
- It was initially my Aim not to have pubs and clubs need to fund this initiative (buy their own products) themselves, but to have each shire council look into allocating a certain amount of funding themselves into the initiative to provide their pubs with the products carrying this message. However to date have had little support..
